

Some investment Options for today's markets...

AXIS TRIPLE ADVANTAGE FUND

This fund from Axis Mutual Fund, one of the fastest growing Mutual Funds today, invests in 3 asset classes EQUITY 40%, BONDS 40% and GOLD 20%. What is interesting is that the fund manager re-balances the portfolio on a monthly basis making it a truly balanced fund

FT INDIA DYNAMIC PE RATION FoF

This fund from Franklin Templeton Mutual Fund has been in existence since October 2003. Its relevance to one's portfolio has increased in view of the meltdown of 2008, the recovery of 2009 and the exuberance of 2010. This fund automatically changes its asset allocation based on the Average PE ratio of the Nifty. At high PE the allocation to equities is reduced, similarly at lower PE it is increased. Returns across last 7 years have been 22%

ICICI PRUDENTIAL INFRASTRUCTURE FUND

Launched in 2005 by ICICI Prudential Mutual Fund this is India's largest Infrastructure fund which had a dream run 2005-2007 and has slipped in its performance last 2 years. However, for the simple reason that infrastructure stocks have not participated in the current market rally, any catching up by them will reflect in the performance of this fund. Moreover, Infrastructure will be the driving force in India's growth.

PRAMERICA EQUITY FUND and PRAMERICA DYNAMIC FUND

The newest entrant in the Indian Mutual Fund space. PRAMERICA AMC sponsored by Prudential Inc USA promises to be top quartile performers due to their unique style of investing. Adding the above funds in your portfolio may be a good idea.

HDFC PRUDENCE FUND and HDFC TOP 200 FUND

The Ever green funds of the Indian Mutual Fund industry with a track record of consistent performance makes these funds a must-have in your portfolio, irrespective of market levels.

INVESTING in the above funds SYSTEMATICALLY keeping a FIVE YEAR investment HORIZON will deliver ABOVE AVERAGE RETURNS.
